2.1 Step 1: Identify The Investor

Each discussion tracked using this widget MUST be associated with a prospect/client (investor). The first step in the process is to determine if the investor is already in the system or if you need to create a new prospect/client.

2.4 Confirmation Screens By Delivery Method

i More Information: You can learn more about what happens once you arrive on one of the pages below in The Process section of this guide.

2.4.1 Mail

The system displays a unique confirmation code that can be used to locate a specific disclosure delivery transaction in the system. The recipient's mailing address appears below the confirmation message.

The system creates a task in the Pending Client Mail Delivery queue.

✔ Tip: You can click View to see a copy of the disclosures.

2.4.2 Electronic

The system displays a unique confirmation code that can be used to locate a specific disclosure delivery transaction in the system. It also displays the email address that will receive the disclosures.

The system sends the investor an email with a hyperlink to the electronic disclosure documents.

✔ Tip: You can click View to see a copy of the disclosures.

2.4.3 Personally Supplied

The system displays a unique confirmation code that can be used to locate a specific disclosure delivery transaction in the system. The system displays the investor’s email address and mailing address.

✔ Tip: You can click View to see a copy of the disclosures.

3.1 Work Item Screen

After you complete the Tracker BI Widget, the disclosures and notes are gathered together. In Docupace, this is called a Work Item.

You can do a number of things on this page such as:

- Read and print the disclosures
- View notes about the process
- Access the client discussion notes

3.2 Mail Delivery

If you select Mail as the delivery method, the system creates a task in the form of a work item in the Pending Client Mail Delivery queue. Admins can create an exportable report of items in this queue by navigating to Administration>Reports>Epacs.

✔ Tip: You can narrow results by searching by the Work Item creation date.

Advisor Note: The system adds the following note to the work item when the task is created.

Mail disclosure delivery created for [client first, last, masked SSN] to be delivered to: [address, city, state, zip]

Next, a financial professional or associate must physically print and mail hard copies of the disclosures.

After sending the disclosures, the user must manually complete the step by clicking the Complete button in the Work Item.

Advisor Note: The system adds the following note to the work item when the disclosures are printed.

Mail disclosure delivery printed for [client first, last, masked SSN] to be delivered to: [address, city, state, zip]

3.3 Electronic Delivery

If you choose to send disclosures Electronically, a task is created in a queue called Pending Client Electronic Review.

✔ Pending Client Electronic Review: This queue is in the background and does not require actions from a user.

The system sends an email to the investor with a link that remains active for five calendar days. After the investor clicks on the email link, the system will ask them to provide their consent to receive the disclosures electronically. You can view information about the client’s consent in the Client Folder.

Advisor Note: The system adds the following note to the work item when it is created.
Electronic disclosure created and sent to: [client first, last, masked SSN] email address: [email address]

❗ Consent: Once the investor opts into electronic delivery, their choice is saved. The system will not display the e-consent prompt in the future for that investor.

❗ Consent Declined If the investor opts out of electronic delivery, the system will not allow you to select this option for the investor in the future.

If the investor consents to electronic delivery, then the system displays the disclosures. Finally, the system automatically completes the task and marks the work item as Complete.

However, if the investor does not click the emailed hyperlink within five calendar days or if the investor opts out of electronic disclosures, then the work item is forwarded to the Pending Client Mail Delivery queue to manually send a hard copy.

3.4 Personally Supplied Delivery

If you select Personally Supplied, the system marks disclosures as provided. It also tracks the date that the disclosures were provided on. This is automatically set to the current date, but it can be edited if necessary. Though the work item is now complete, you can still open the work item to view and/or print the disclosures.

Advisor Note: The system adds the following note to the work item when it is created.

4 Updating A Prospect To A Client

Click on Images to Expand Them

✔ Tip: Click the link under each image to view it in more detail.

New investor records created with Tracker-BI are added to the system as prospects. In order to create other work items in the system (such as accounts), you will need to return to the client record and update the client’s information with a SSN and any other required fields.
